SUPPLEMENT

1. The Soviet commercial attache at Rome has instructed Istvan Glausius to begin delivery of goods immediately within the framework of the Italo-Hungarian trade pact because of the Soviet Union's needs, especially for Ford tractors.
2. The volume of trade under the terms of the agreement amounts to ten million dollars with provision for an unlimited increase in stocks for reciprocal trading if available. Trade is to be channelled through the Communist-controlled Cooperativa CICEO ( Compagnia Italo Cambio Europa Orientale) in Italy and Hungary.
3. Hungary will deliver mainly bauxite, gas, oil and coal while Italy will export chiefly cattle, fruits, tractors, textiles and tools.
4. Glausius is scheduled to leave for Hungary on 14 December with representatives of the Italian Cooperativa.
